

[The page contains dense handwritten Greek text, likely from a manuscript. The script is cursive and fills most of the page area.]

Learning History, or, the history of the world, from the beginning of time, to the present day.
 This book contains a full and complete account of all the events which have happened since the first ages of the world, down to our own times.
 It is written in a plain and simple manner, so that every person may be able to understand it. The author has taken great pains to make it as accurate as possible, and to give a true and impartial account of all the facts which are recorded in the sacred scriptures, and in the writings of the ancient historians. He has also added many particulars which are not found in other books of this kind. The design of this work is to inform the reader of the progress of human affairs, and to show how the world has been governed by the providence of God, from the beginning of time to the end of the world.

Ακαδημία Αθηνών / Academy of Athens

— 48 von Buch
Jah: 1802

—sidisim