The Court appointed for the purpose, and ordered as follows: That the period of the year beginning on the first of January, and ending on the last of December, shall be divided into four quarters, the first of which shall be the first quarter, the second the second quarter, the third the third quarter, and the fourth the fourth quarter. And the Court ordered that the first of January shall be the first day of the first quarter, and the last of December shall be the last day of the fourth quarter. And the Court ordered that the first of January shall be the first day of the first quarter, and the last of December shall be the last day of the fourth quarter. And the Court ordered that the first of January shall be the first day of the first quarter, and the last of December shall be the last day of the fourth quarter. And the Court ordered that the first of January shall be the first day of the first quarter, and the last of December shall be the last day of the fourth quarter. And the Court ordered that the first of January shall be the first day of the first quarter, and the last of December shall be the last day of the fourth quarter. And the Court ordered that the first of January shall be the first day of the first quarter, and the last of December shall be the last day of the fourth quarter. And the Court ordered that the first of January shall be the first day of the first quarter, and the last of December shall be the last day of the fourth quarter.

These verses! The most precious promises of the Father to His children are here written down.
The Father's love is shown in the fact that He has given us His Son, Jesus Christ, who has died for our sins, so that we may have eternal life. This is the greatest gift of all. We must believe in Him, and receive Him by faith, and then we shall have the life of God forever.
This is the promise of the Father, which He has given to all who believe in His Son.
