2. The other side of the coin is the fact that the Government has been very successful in its efforts to reduce the number of people who are living in poverty. This is a very important achievement, and it is a testament to the Government's commitment to social justice.
 However, there is still a long way to go.
 The Government must continue to work hard to ensure that everyone has access to the same opportunities and resources. This is the only way to build a truly just and equitable society.
