

Er ist dreyerley gewesen.

The original text is a handwritten manuscript in a cursive script, likely from the 18th or 19th century. It is written on a single sheet of paper with a vertical fold. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page. The ink is dark, and the handwriting is fluid and somewhat slanted. There are several lines of text that appear to be crossed out or corrected, particularly in the middle section. The paper shows signs of age, including some discoloration and a small tear near the bottom center.
