

[illegible]

The manuscript is written in a cursive script, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The text is written on a single page of aged, yellowed paper. The handwriting is somewhat slanted and the ink is dark, possibly iron gall. The text is arranged in a single column, filling most of the page. There are some faint, illegible markings at the bottom of the page, which appear to be a library stamp or a date. The overall appearance is that of a historical document or a personal letter.
