Mr. Wm. B. Brewster Esq.

Dear Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 2nd inst. in relation to the proposed publication of the "Proceedings of the Academy of Athens" for the year 1880. I am very glad to hear that you are interested in the work of the Academy, and I am sure that the publication of the "Proceedings" will be of great value to the scientific community.

I have the honor to inform you that the "Proceedings" for the year 1880 have been published, and are now in the hands of the printer. I am sure that you will find the work of the Academy very interesting, and I am sure that the publication of the "Proceedings" will be of great value to the scientific community. I am very glad to hear that you are interested in the work of the Academy, and I am sure that the publication of the "Proceedings" will be of great value to the scientific community.
