[Faint handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]
