

Πρὸς τοὺς ἑλλήνων ἐργαζομένων ἐν τῇ πόλει καὶ τῇ ἐκκλησίᾳ ἡμεῖς καὶ οἱ ἄλλοι

N. Kaye

2 P. D. Cusack

John W. Anderson

• 2007/03 24 2011/03

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

27. Of the changes to which the country is subject, and the effects of the same, the following are the principal ones.
 The first is the change of the level of the land, which is caused by the subsidence of the strata, and the elevation of the sea, which is caused by the expansion of the water, and the contraction of the land.