

[illegible]

The present day is a day of great importance, and it is a day of great interest to all of us. We are gathered here today to discuss the future of our country, and to decide upon the course of action which we should take. It is a day of great responsibility, and it is a day of great honor. We are all here to do our duty, and to do it well. We are all here to do our best, and to do it to the best of our ability. We are all here to do our part, and to do it to the best of our power. We are all here to do our share, and to do it to the best of our skill. We are all here to do our job, and to do it to the best of our knowledge. We are all here to do our work, and to do it to the best of our understanding. We are all here to do our task, and to do it to the best of our judgment. We are all here to do our duty, and to do it to the best of our conscience. We are all here to do our best, and to do it to the best of our ability. We are all here to do our part, and to do it to the best of our power. We are all here to do our share, and to do it to the best of our skill. We are all here to do our job, and to do it to the best of our knowledge. We are all here to do our work, and to do it to the best of our understanding. We are all here to do our task, and to do it to the best of our judgment. We are all here to do our duty, and to do it to the best of our conscience.
