* This index contains a list of all the documents in chronological order. Each entry consists of the date of the document as it appears in the list, the names of the sender and the receiver as they appear in the list and the incremental unique identity number of the document. To facilitate identification, in the case of documents that have neither sender nor receiver a short description of their contents is attached, e.g. List of Turkish ships instead of List.

Both the Julian and the Gregorian chronological systems have been used. The dual dates have been separated by a slash. The dates of documents in the Muslim calendar have been converted to the Christian dating systems.

Record numbers 947-1110 correspond to section F.O.78/112 of the Descriptive List, which has been printed in Volume II, pp. 344-356.

* Authors of publications are indexed as senders. Anonymous pamphlets, books and newspapers are not indexed. The names of newspapers are indexed in the Alphabetical index. In the case of records signed by more than three persons, only the first three, followed by "and others", appear in the list and consequently in the index. If these persons form a collective body, e.g. the Administrative Commission of Greece, the name of the body appears as the sender or receiver in the list, the names of the first three persons followed by "and others" appearing in a footnote.

Record numbers 947-1110 correspond to section F.O.78/112 of the Descriptive List, which has been printed in Volume II, pp. 344-356.

* This index contains the names of persons, places etc. that appear in the summaries or in the footnotes. Names of senders and receivers do not appear in this index, which the user is advised to use in conjunction with the index of senders and receivers.
Thematic terms are not indexed separately. They are nested as narrower terms linked to names. If the user is interested in a subject, he is advised to search under a geographic term or under the name of a person. E.g. for piracy, he can search under Greece- piracy, Mediterranean- piracy or Codrington, E. – piracy.
When references to records are too numerous they are subdivided chronologically. The year of the record is placed in italics and in brackets. E.g. Constantinople: [1821] 161, 218, 241, 256, 264, ...; [1822] 564, 582, 598, 622, ...; [1823] 1136, 1144, 1167, ...
An asterisk (*) next to a number refers to a list entry containing information on the indexed name.
Record numbers 947-1110 correspond to section F.O.78/112 of the Descriptive List, which has been printed in Volume II, pp. 344-356.
